PRAISE GOD THAT:

- Christ is the King of glory, clothed with majesty, reigning sovereignly from his throne of holiness over all the earth, all creatures, and all gods. Psalms 24:10, 47:7-8, 93:1 and 95:3
- Christ the King will continue to reign until all his enemies have been put under his feet. Ephesians 1:22
- The kingdom of glory is without comparison; excelling in splendour, riches, holiness, unity, joy, peace, and pleasure. Revelation 21:27.
- That we, having been made alive in Christ, therefore have the unbelievable privilege of being citizens of this kingdom. Philippians 3:20

PRAY THAT THE KINGDOM OF GOD'S GRACE WILL

- be established in the hearts of our covenant children and youth.
- grow in our hearts through hearing the preached Word of God, so that we will grow in our love for the Lord Jesus Christ and one another.
- create a passionate desire within us to live in an intentional, thoughtful manner in genuine submission to Christ.
- increasingly conform us to the image of Christ as God has predestined.
- build our faith so that we might experience peace, enrichment of our souls, and bear much good fruit to our Father's glory.
- stir within us a holy zeal that will convict us to speak boldly to others of the Lord.
- lay hold of those whom we know and love but who are currently in the kingdom of darkness.
- hasten the coming of the Kingdom of God's glory that we might be freed from the imperfections of our corrupt nature and the daily challenges of this present life.
- give way to the full realization of the Kingdom of glory, so that we can experience perfect communion with all the saints and God in the joy-filled new heavens and new earth.
